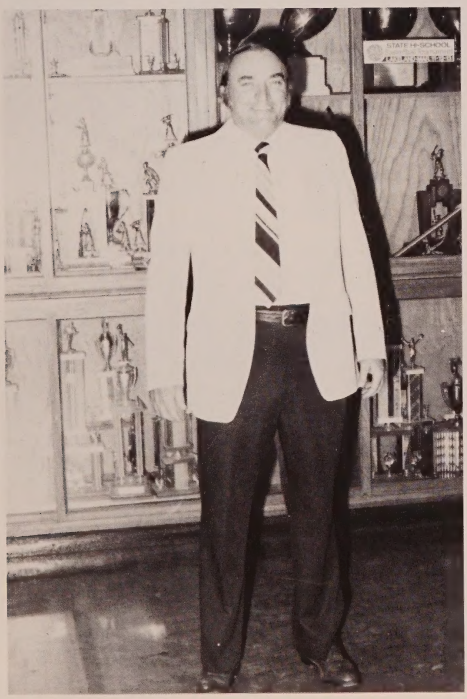
ADMINISTRATION FACULTY



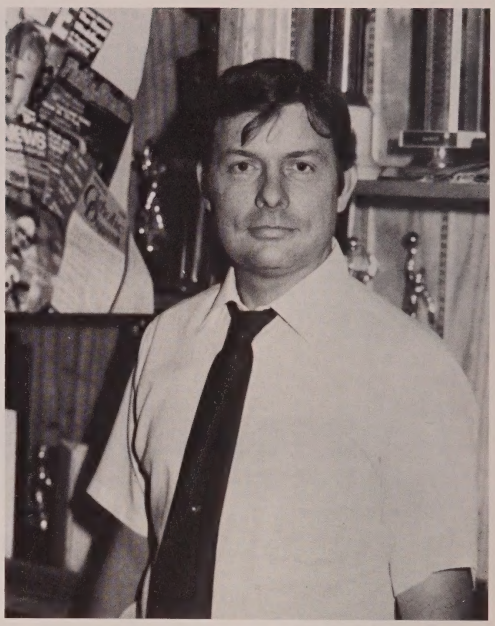
PRINCIPAL

Mr. Jerry E. Tyre, distinct gentleman and principal of Vernon High School for the past sixteen years, has been a very essential part of the students as well as the faculty. He graduated from Bay High School and received his Bachelors and Masters Degree at Troy State University. Mr. Tyre feels that VHS could be improved if more students participated in extracurricular activities and if students would take more pride in their school.

Looking into the future, he eagerly anticipates the following: 1. completion of the renovation program, 2. continue upgrading the academic program, 3. upgrading extracurricular activities.

Mr. Tyre states, "I really enjoy being principal and being a part of the positive things that VHS does." We appreciate all the effort that Mr. Tyre has displayed in the past six years and we would like to encourage him to continue the good work.

VICE PRINCIPAL



Mr. Howard E. Riley, our hard working vice principal, was born and raised in Wausau, Florida. He graduated from Chipley High School and received his A.A. degree from Chipola Jr. College and went on to receive his Bachelors and Masters Degree at the University of West Florida. Mr. Riley's obligations at Vernon High School are to enforce rules and regulations set upon the students and to see that they abide by them and to encourage students to achieve a high level of achievement.

To Mr. Riley, we would like to express our congratulations to him on a job well done as vice principal and we look forward to continued success with him.

The lovely Miss Sonya Peterson (far right) was crowned 1983-84 Homecoming Queen. Miss Kimberly Simmons (bottom right) won first place and Miss Sandi Kelly (bottom left) won second place. At top is part of the homecoming court walking across the field with excitement wondering who would be the 1983-84 Homecoming Queen.

Everyone was waiting for the big Homecoming Parade. They were filled with excitement waiting for the game and dance that night. Alot of people joined in on the dress up day. The 8th graders won the Spirit Stick for the Jr. High division and the Juniors won it for the Senior High division. Excitement really hit Homecoming Night when the Vernon Yellow Jackets won their first football game.

SENIOR HALL OF FAME

Ten Seniors were elected to Senior Hall of Fame in 1983. This honor is based on nomination by faculty members and election by a special faculty committee. The basis for membership is the following question: "What has this student contributed to VHS during his/her years here?" The number elected is approximately ten percent of the senior class.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Mrs. Mary Whitehurst—Sponsor

The 1983-1984 officers are: Amy Kirk—Secretary-Treasurer, Terence Vann—President, and Stephanie Whitaker—Vice-President.

Student Council, one of the most active and respected organizations on VHS campus, was established in 1948. The Council is comprised of one senator and four representatives from each grade. They are involved in such school events as following: Homecoming, Thanksgiving Food basket, and Student Government Workshop.

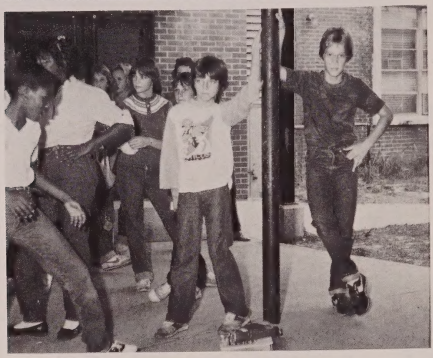
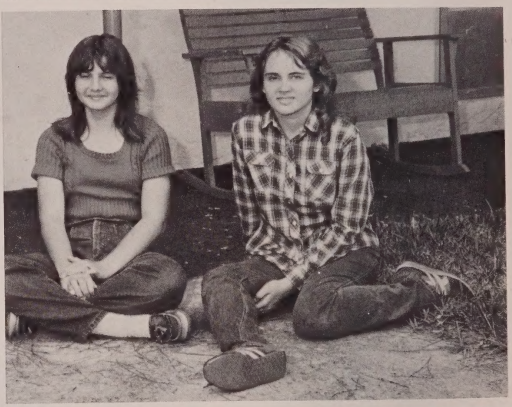
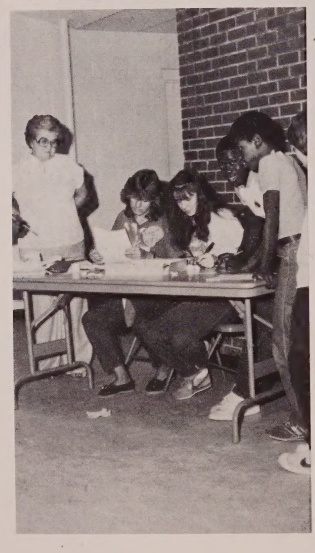
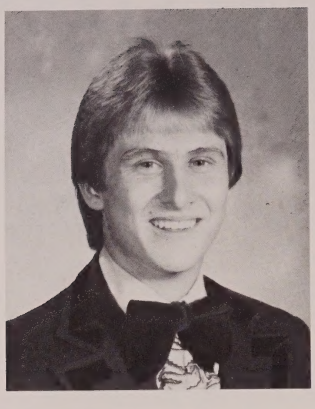
FORD



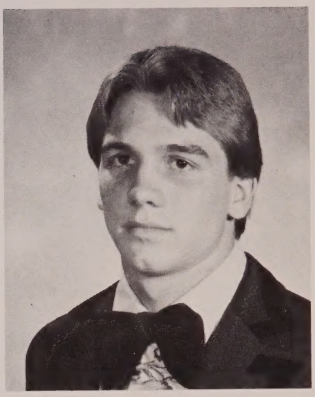




SENIORS



PRESIDENT
Roger Scott Register
"Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true."

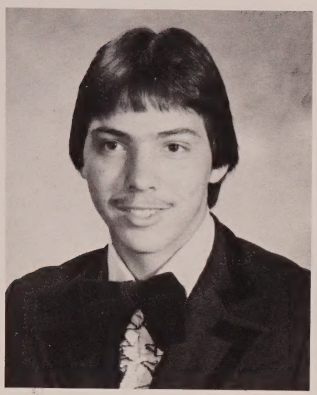


Vice President
Vince Norman Carter
"A faithful friend is a strong defense: and he that hath found such a one hath found a treasure."

Secretary—Treasurer
Kimberly Kay Simmons
"It is better to have known love once, than never have known it at all; it is better to give love now, than loose your love once and for all."

Mrs. Linda Faison, Mrs. Kay Taylor, Mr. Michael Brock, and Ms. Debbie Lloyd served as senior sponsors during the 1983-84 school term.

Seniors not pictured are: Joseph Preston Haddock, Daryl Lynn Joyner, Wayne Locke, Tammy Ann Stone, and Rita Lynn Jaggars Whitehead.



Troy Anders
"Smile, God loves you".

Rebecca Darlene Andrews
"No one knows what they can do till they try."

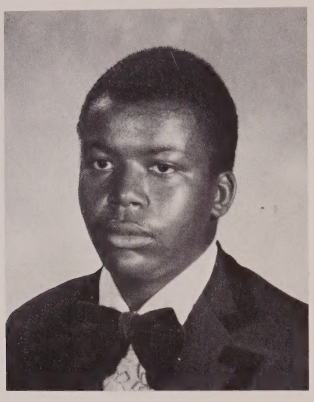
August 22, 1983 began the year that was to be. During this first day of our senior year, we began to realize that this was our last year at Vernon High School. For the first time we were the oldest around the school except for the staff.

This year was to hold all the joys and privileges of being a senior. However, this idea was short lived as we undertook the obstacles of electing our officers, Scott, Vince, and Kim, voting on our class motto, "Bustin' loose for ever more, we're the class of 84", song "Is This the End?", flower (red rose), colors (blue and white) and working toward our senior trip.

We led the way in all areas during the school term, academically and athletically. But our teachers and coaches really deserve the credit for helping us struggle through classes such as American problems, calculus, physics, humanities, and the ever popular English IV.

We realized during this year that our teachers were not out to get us, rather they were our friends. This was especially true of our sponsors, Mr. Brock, Ms. Lloyd, Mrs. Faison, and Mrs. Taylor. They were always around to lend advice and give a helping hand. We owe them and the complete staff of Vernon High School our undying thanks and gratitude for preparing us to meet the world outside of high school.

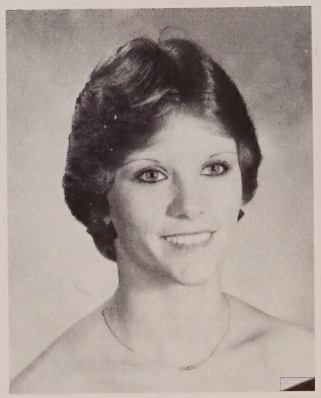
As this last year slips away and May 22 approaches, we recognize that this was the year that was—now we are "MOVING ON".



Thomas Ray Andrews
"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure, and pleasure my business."

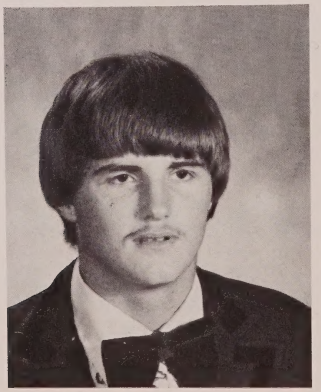
Felicia M. Bishop
"All the wonders you seek are within yourself."

Sharon Renay Bland
"Be yourself, who else is better qualified."

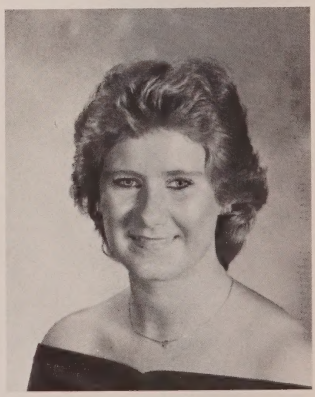


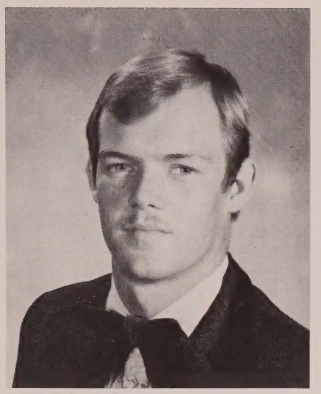
Deanna Faye Brock
"To beautify life is to give it an object."

Charles Edward Brock, Jr.
"He that will not when he may, shall not when he will."



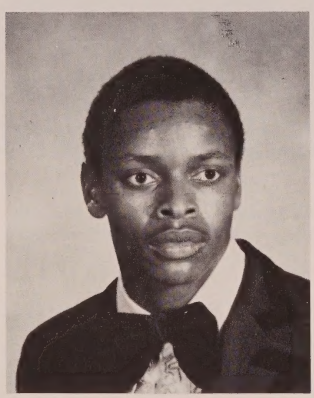
Elizabeth Ann Brock
"More things are wrought by prayer than the world dreams of."





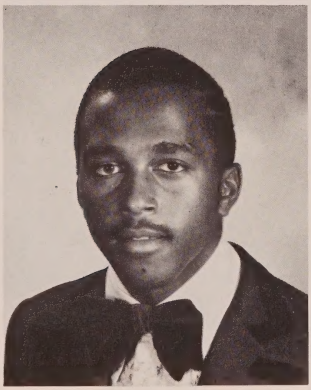
Nevil James Brock
"Genius is one percent inspiration and ninety-nine percent perspiration."

Horace Brown
"We rarely find that people have good sense unless they agree with us."



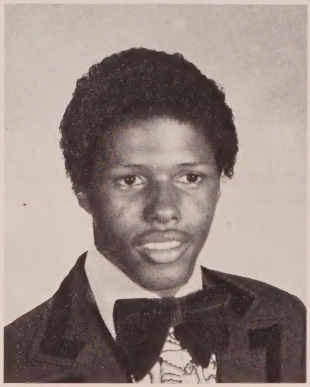
Sonya Lavette Brown
"Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true."

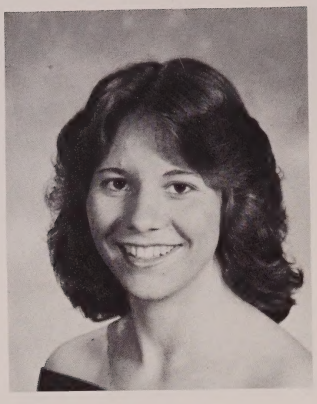
Thwanna Brendetta Brown
"How beautiful a day can be when kindness touches it."



Timothy Allen Brown
"If you don't understand my silence or the few words I say—maybe you will understand my smile."

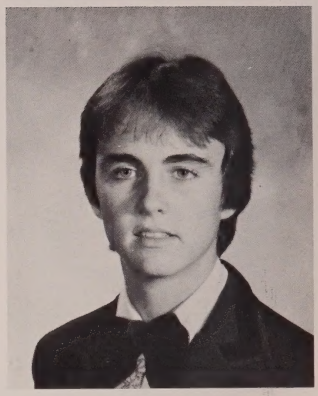
William Keith Brown
"In this world it is not what we take up, but what we give up, that makes us rich."





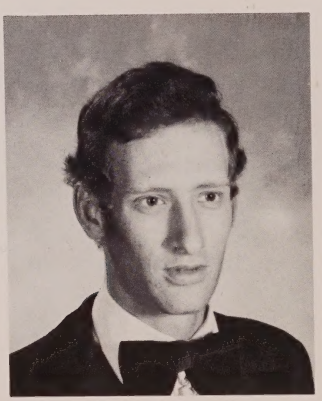
Loreida Dawn Burch
"One word frees us of all the weight and pain of life. That word is Love."

Karen Denise Carnley
"A friend is one who comes in when the whole world has gone out."

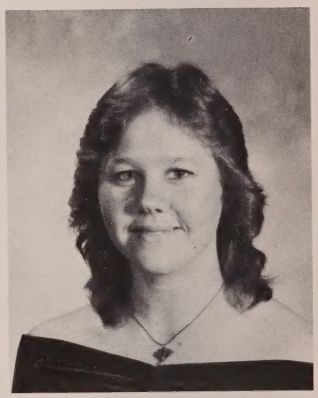


James Stephen Carter
"Love is not to be purchased and affection has no price."

Carol L. Chambers
"If you think twice before you speak once, you will speak twice the better for it."



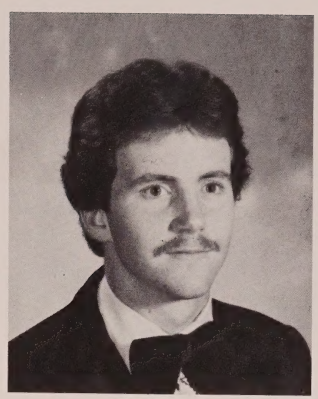
Frank T. Clohan
"The strongest man in the world is he who stands most alone."



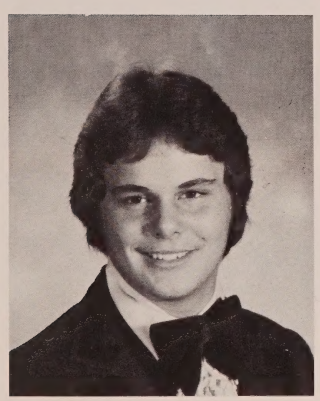
Taris Annette Cone
"No matter how silly, foolish, or ridiculous I may be, (SHAME!) that's me;—I've got to be patriotic to myself."

Carolyn Margaret Dealy
"If you love something set it free, it it comes back to you it's yours, if it doesn't it never was."

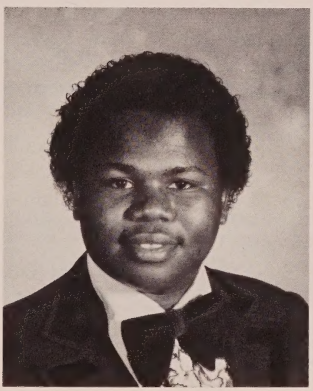
Alma Douglas
"If your heart is full of love, you always have something to give away."



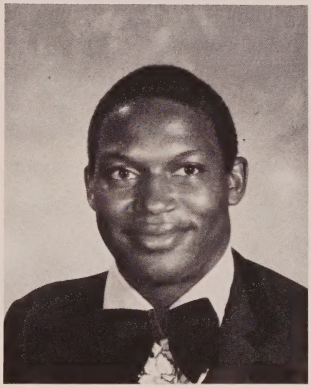
Thomas "T" Duffy
"Those who bring sunshine to the life of others cannot keep it from themselves."



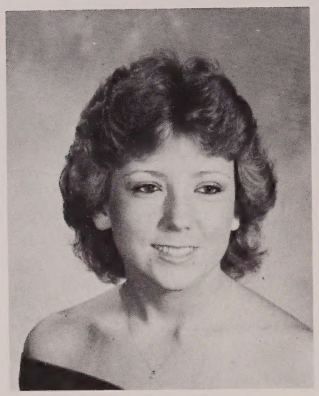
Monroe Frank Easterling
"Your life will be rich for others only as it is rich for you."



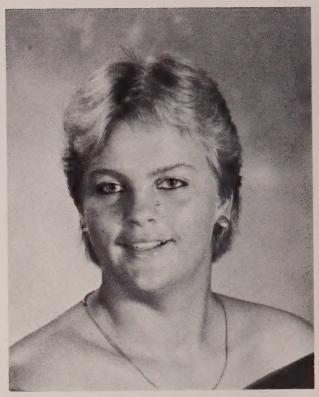
Kevin Edwards
"Success is getting what you want; happiness is wanting what you get."



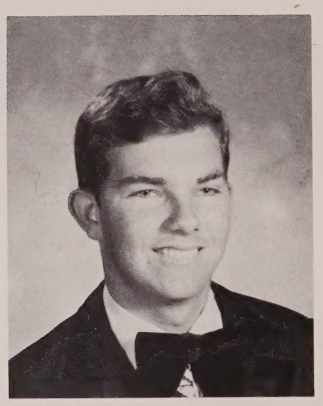
Trevor L. Edwards
"To find my paradise, I've learned to put up with whatever I have to in order to do what I want. And for me there's nothing I'd rather do than live."



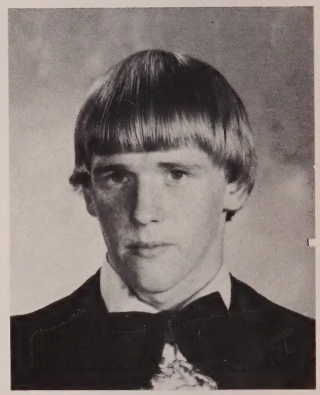
Marsha Ann Finch
"The only way to have a friend is to be one."



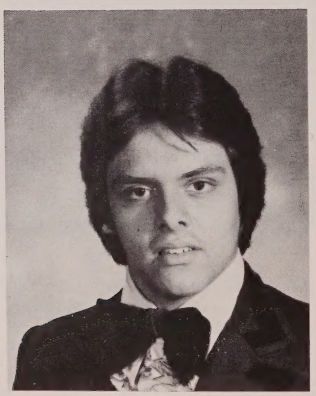
Penny Ruth Finch
"The supreme happiness of life is the conviction that we are loved."



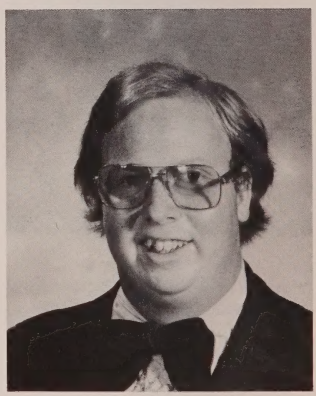
George John Fisher
"I found more joy in sorrow than I could find in joy."



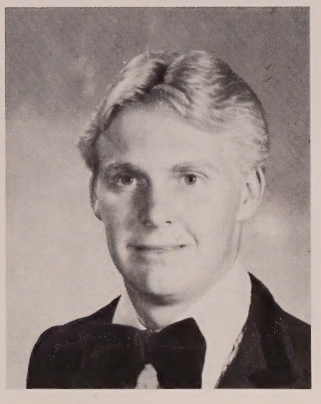
Robert Curtis Galbreath
"We promise according to our hopes, and perform according to our fears."



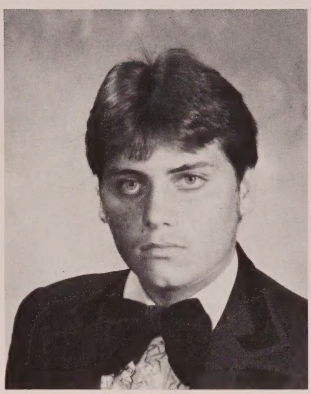
Stann Christopher Galloway
"The friendship that can cease has never been real."



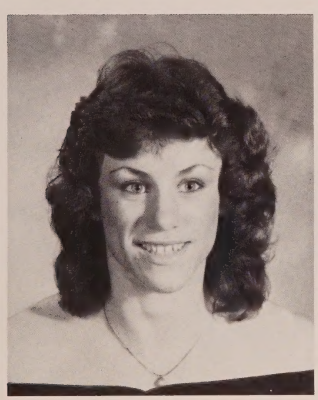
Willie Keith Galloway
"God is more truly imagined than expressed, and he exists more truly than He is imagined."



Raymond E. Gipson
"God helps those who help themselves."

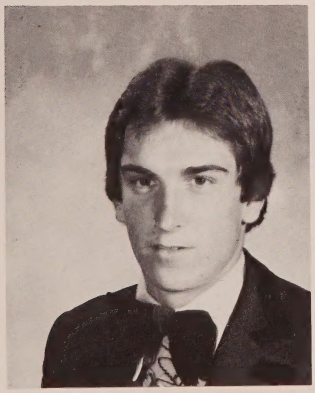


Johnnie Christopher Gunn
"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

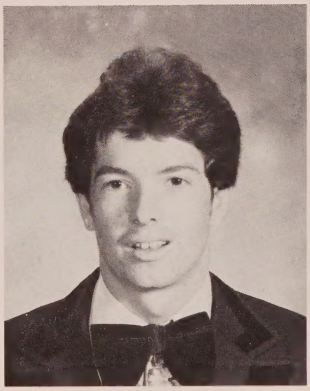


Kimberly Ann Haddock
"Little that a rightous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked."

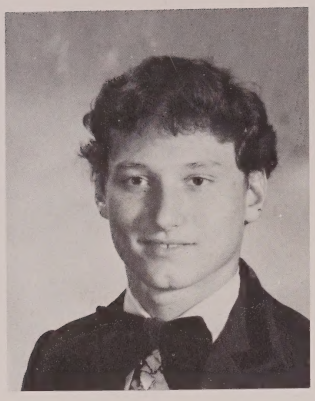
Kathy Ann Hammack
"A kind heart is a fountain of gladness, making everything in its vicinity to freshen into smiles."



Darren Hammond
"A man is rich in proportion to the number of things he can afford to let alone."

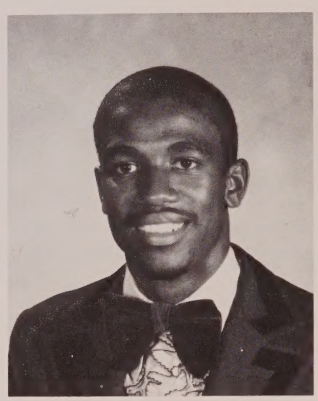


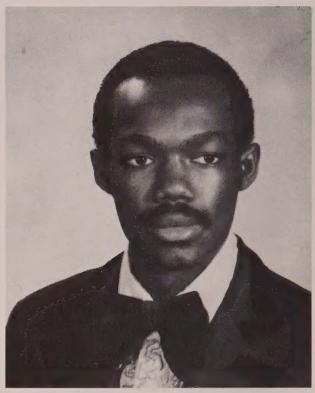
Robert Lee Hampto
"Life is what you make of it; either a daring adventure or nothing."



Curtis Monroe Harcus
"Prosperity makes friends, adversity tries them."

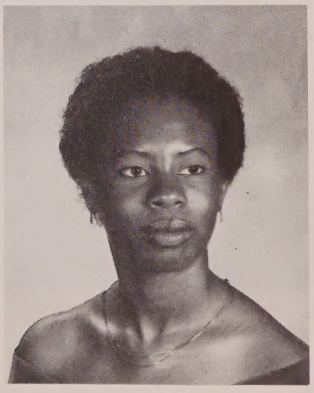
Glenn Harris
"What is not good for the swarm, is not good for the bee."

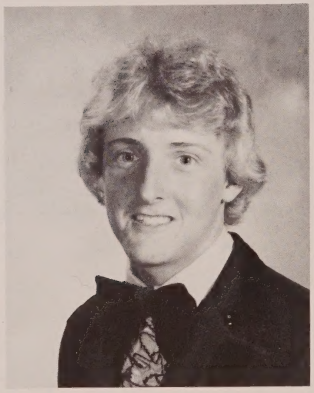




Carl Thomas Hogans III
"To make the world a friendly place, one must show it a friendly face."

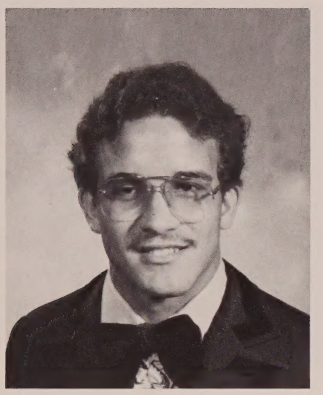
Miranda Marie Hogans
"To make the world a friendly place, one must show it a friendly face."





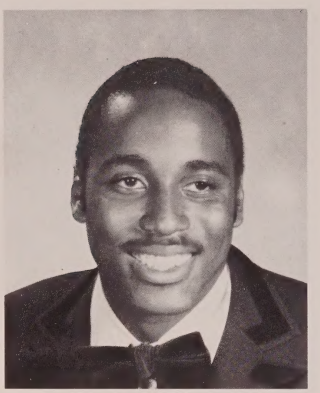
Leamon Geroame Holley
"Positive thinking will not get us through life; only realistic preparation will."

Edna Pearl Jackson
"Beware of little expenses: A small leak will sink a great ship."



Mark Andrew Jeffries
"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference."

Dorothy H. Jenkins
"If you think twice before you speak once, you will speak twice the better for it."

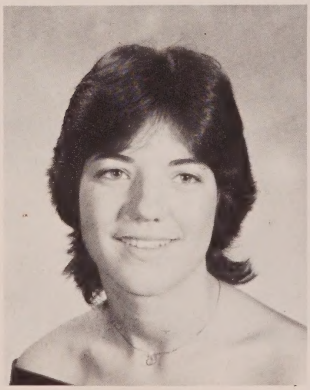


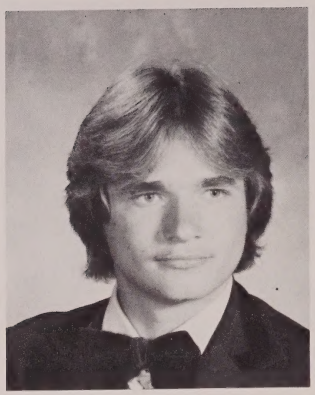
Anthony B. Johns
"He who lives without folly is not so wise as he thinks."

Alicia Maria Jones
"Faith is that which makes miracles attainable."

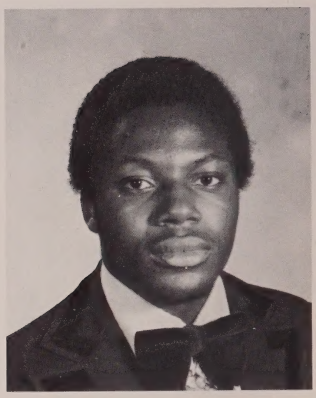
Sandi Michele Kelly
"Yesterday is over and done with, today is the present, endure it for tomorrow may not come."

Teresa I. Kirkland
"Those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves."





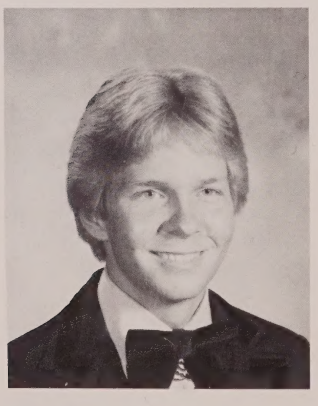
Frank Michael Kreager
"What lies before us and what lies behind us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."



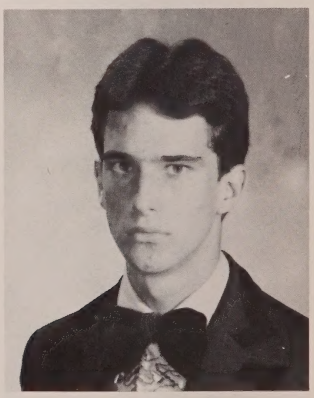
James Howard Lee
"We know nothing of tomorrow; our business is to be good and happy today."

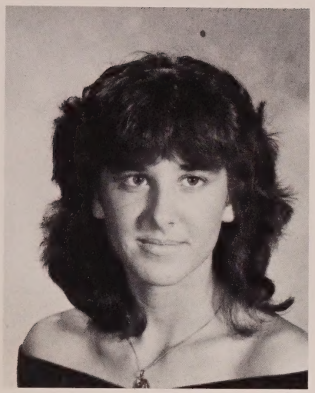
Carla Victoria Lee
"To make the world a friendly place one must show it a friendly face."

Kenneth Glenn Lee
"One does not make friends, one recognizes them."



Charles Andrew Lewis
"Never look down to test the ground before taking your next step; only the one who keeps his eye fixed on the far horizon will find his right road."



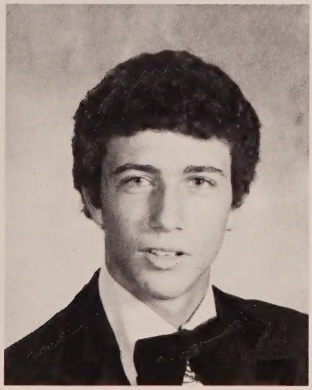


Kathleen Yvonne McCreedy
"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

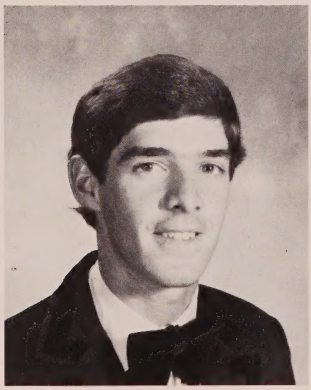
Donna Lisa McDonald
"Many complain of their memory, few of their judgement."

Bridget Renee McDonald
"Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

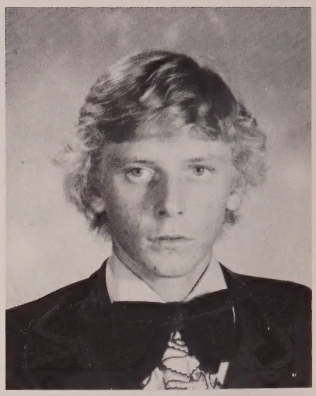
Bob Morrell III
"Do not follow where the path leads. Rather go where there is no path and leave a trail."



Dow Gordon Morris
"Memory is the power to gather roses in winter."



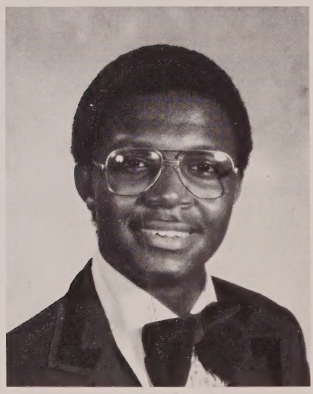
Shelby Jean Nettles
"Faith makes it possible to believe the impossible."



Daryl Scott Owens
"The beginning of wisdom is the sound of silence."

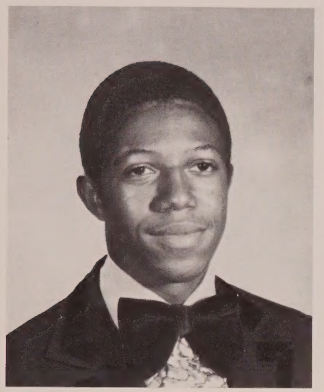
Melissa Pelfrey
"Remember yesterday; Dream about tomorrow; but live for today."

Priscilla Ann Peterson
"Live for today, dream of tomorrow, learn from yesterday."

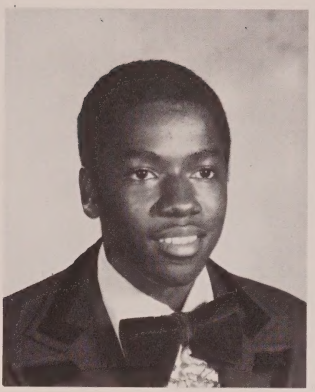


Samuel A. Peterson
"We know what we are, but we know not what we may be."

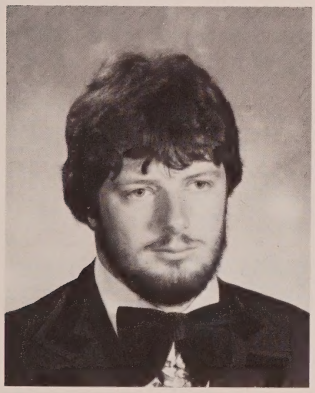
Sonya M. Peterson
"My interest is in the future because I am going to spend the rest of my life there."



Stacey Peterson
"Love is only chatter, friends are all that matter."



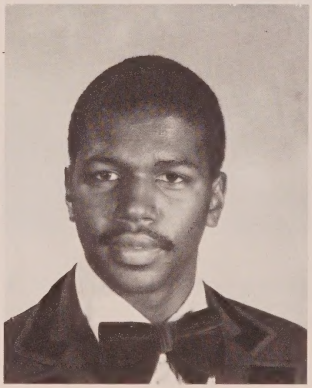
Willie A. Peterson
"Start a kind word on it's travels,—there's no telling where the good it may do will stop."



Robert Keith Pettis
"I exist as I am—that is enough."

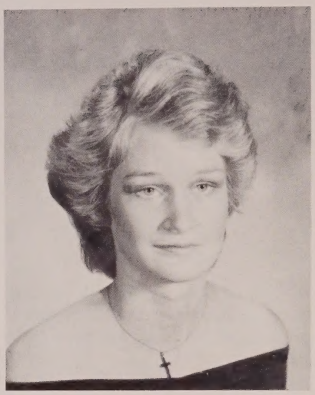
Elvira Phillips
"To make the world a friendly place, one must show it a friendly face."

Linda L. Potter
"He that plants trees loves others besides himself."

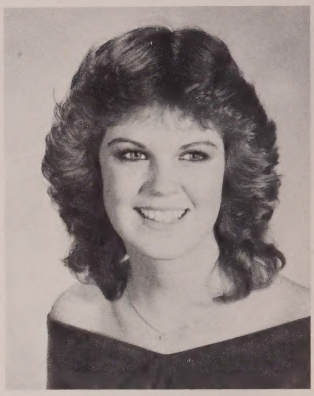


Willie A. Potter Jr.
"Silence is the element in which great things fashion themselves."

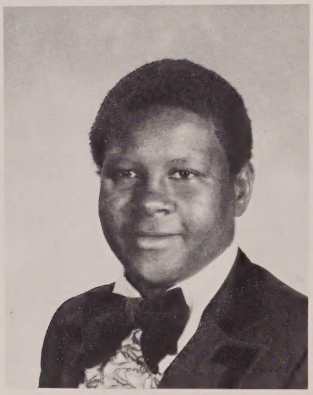
Sandra Denise Prevatt
"True friends are like diamonds; precious but rare. False friends are like autumn leaves; found everywhere."



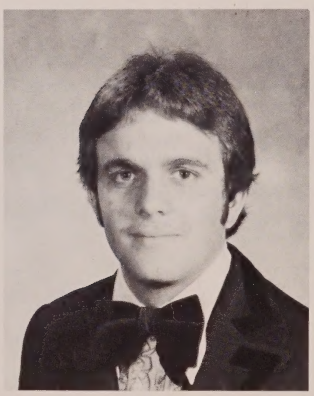
Joy Price
"Happiness is found along the way not at the end of the road."



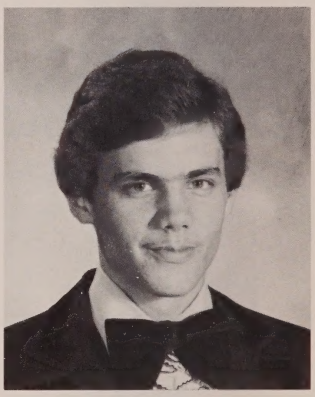
Kimberly A. Pyne
"All that we see or seem is but a dream within a dream."



Howard Roche
"Love looks not with the eyes, but with the mind, and therefore is wing'd Cupid painted blind?"

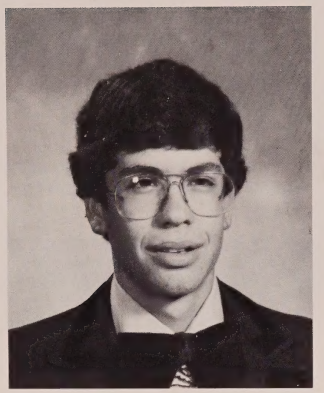


Robert Earl Sexton, Jr.
"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."



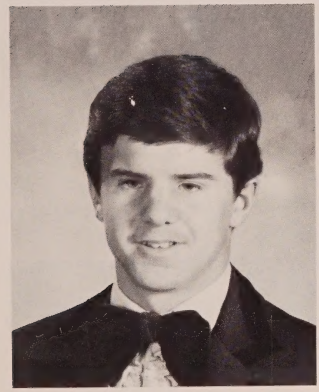
Darrell Keith Shores
"The heart of a fool is in his mouth, but the mouth of the wise man is in his heart."

Michelle Lynn Simmons
"For to be happy, let the world shine with love."

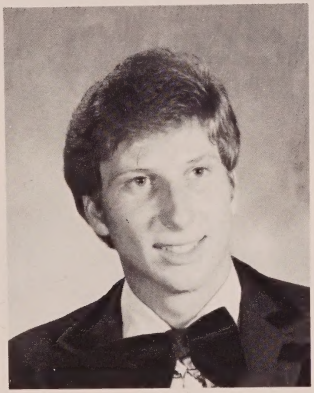


Christopher Jon Smith
"What is past I know, but what is for to come I know not."

Linda Smith Street
"Friendship is a golden gift cherished above all life's treasures."

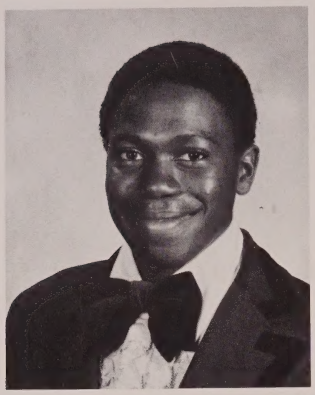


Rex Thomas Suggs, Jr.
"You can always give without loving, but you can never love without giving."



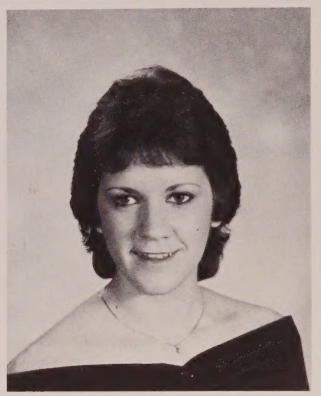
Harold Gene Thompson
"When you feel how depressingly slowly you climb, it's well to remember that things take time."

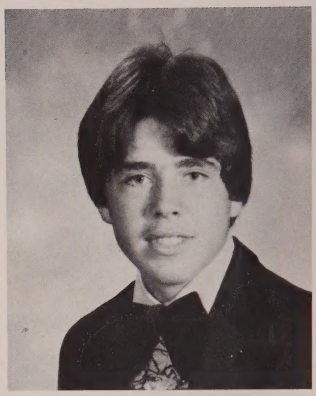
Janis Lynn Tiller
"To make the world a friendly place, one must show it a friendly face."



Terence Raphael Vann
"It's foolish to follow your own opinions. Be safe, and follow the teachings of wiser people."

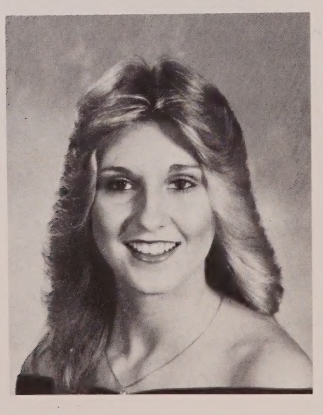
Dawn Joy Waller
"The power of thought is the magic of the mind."

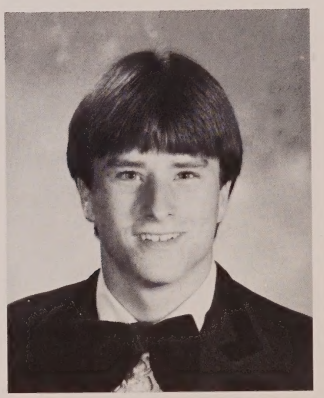




Johnny Ronnie Walsingham
"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

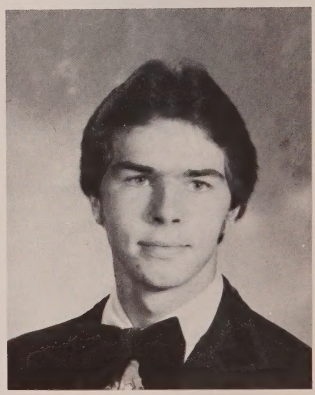
Martha Alice Walsingham
"Some of the advantages of taking chances are that I am constantly encountering new experiences and making discoveries."

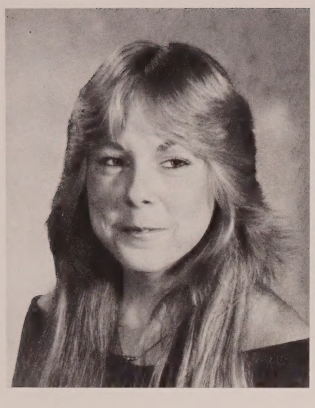




Marcus D. Wells
"I'm a lover, I'm a fighter, I'm a green hornet driver."

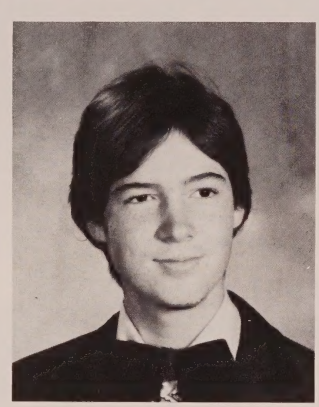
Rodney Wells
"To do injustice is more disgraceful than to suffer it."





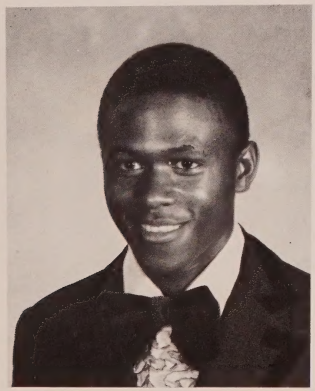
Cynthia Wood
"Life's most glorious delights are those that cost time."

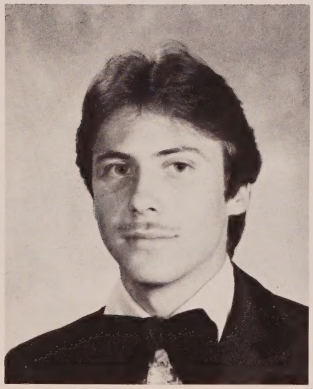
William Walter Woody
"The men who try to do something and fail are infinitely better than those who try to do nothing and succeed."



Almeanus Ann Works
"It is wise to seek a secret and honest not to reveal it."

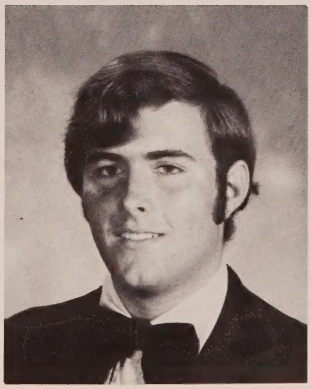
Christopher R. Works
"Don't put off until tomorrow what can be done today."



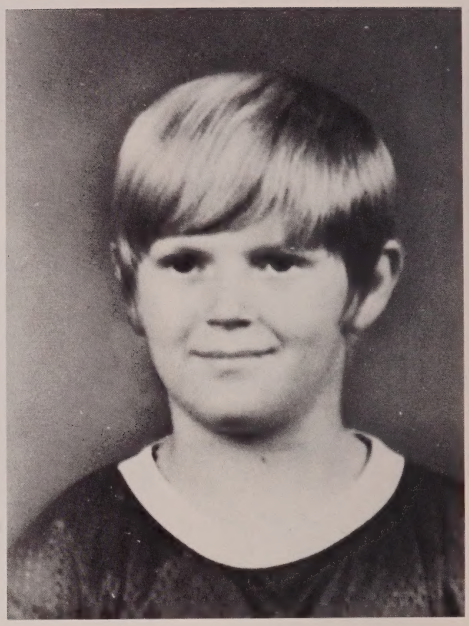


John Stephen Worthing
"Long distance is the next best thing to being there."

Donald Glenn Yohn
"It's nice to be important, but more important to be nice."



We, the Seniors, Class of 1984, dedicate this page in loving memory, to Willie Casey (right) and Jeff Moore (bottom).



As roses bloom and roses die
So too our souls must one day fly . . .
To meet their maker face to face
And share with Him a greater place.

Above the clouds beyond the rain
There is a world that knows no pain . . .
And here we'll meet with those we love
Who've gone to be with God above . . .

Our grief and tears will fade away
As we too share this bright new day . . .
We'll walk among the flowers there
And find new joys to give and share.
